Mrs. Gene Gehres Feted at Lawn Tea; Family in New Pastorate

By BETTY MITCHELL

More of those summer vacations are in the air. The Willie McFarlands of Danaha St.
returned recently from a pleasant trip through these United States back to Idagrove, Iowa.
In Idagrove they visited with the Ben Toddes, parents of Mrs.
McFarland, and then took in such places of interest, as the Black Hills and Yellowstone Park. To their two older daughters, the high point of the trip was the many "real".

Mrs. Robert Cramer, Mrs. Charles Beck, and Mrs. William Bygener were co-hostesses recently at a lovely lawn tea given as a farewell gesture for Mrs. Gene Gehres. The color theme of yellow and green was carried out in a lovely centerplece of yellow and white gladioli and in the table settings. The cakes were also decorated in yellow and green, while the honoree's corage was of yellow and white carnations. Over 35 ladles attended the affair and tendered Pegy handkerchiefs as a surprise for her. The Gehres family now resides in East Los Angeles after moving from Ocean St. where they had lived the three years Rev. Gehres served the local Methodist Church.

Had you heard? There will be some relief from the heat in August when the local Women's Society of Christian Service sponsor an old time ice cream festival at the social room of the local Methodist Church. The plans for the project were begun at their last general meeting held in June. Twenty-six women participated in the gathering, enjoying the program and devotional led by Mrs. William Gunningham, Mrs. Bert Pemble, and Mrs. William Burgener. Subject of the program was "The World, Beginning in My Community."

in town since Bert and Clara Pemble of Newton St. appeared on "Truth or Consequences" and they were wanted on the show since the show had beet worked around "grandpar ents," the Pembles went to join in on the following Fri day's fun. All was uneventful as far as the Pembles went to join in on the following Fri day's fun. All was uneventful as far as the Pembles were concerned until most of the program was over. Then, after a contest matching grandfather and grandchild was over, as cortest and the join and the same and the program was over. Then, after a cort was the come and claim her child, and whe saw a still unclaimed Since they could not have as "orphan" on their stage the mother was asked to come and claim her child, and whe should step out onto the plat form but Clara's daughter. It urned out that the unclaimed "orphan" was Clara's daughter, it urned out that the unclaimed "orphan" was Clara's and Bert's brand new granddaughter whom they had never seen, and the parents were Clara's daughter and her husband, Mr and Mrs. Bill Titchenell "Truth or Consequences" had flown the young family out here from their home in Grand Rapids as a complete surprise to the Pembles. All had a more than merry get together and were able to spend the week end together with the Titchenell flying back to their home on the following Tisseday.

Our hearfelt sympathies rest this week with the Charles A. Davis family of Cricklewood upon the loss of wife and mother, Agnes Davis. Mrs. Davis was one of the first war brides of World War II arriving here from her home in Liverpool, England, in 1944. Her life was claimed by double pneumonia and other complications. She is survived by her husband, Charles, and three children, Charles, and three children, Charlotte 11, John 10, and Susan 6, and her parents and brother who live in England.

That fifth birthday was a big event in 'the life of little Hank Merrill since he had a double celebration. On Sunday he had a day had a party at his home on Danaha St. with Frank DeCaro. Billy Mitchell, Stephen Farris. John ny Sohner, Walt Hermann, Gregg and Christine Pappas, and Francine Aguliar all attending to wish him a happy birthday. Hank greated his guests in a brand new cowboy suit since the party was on "Davy Crockett." After games were played and presents opened, the little guests were fascinated by the birthday cake complete with a miniature Davy Crockett and rifle on the top. On Monday Hank was one of the guests on the Bill Stulia Parlor Party, appearing full of smiles and with no stage fright at all. He walked off with a Slinky Train for his efforts.

The local Kiwanis Club has been busy these days lending a helping hand to some of the projects in our town. Among these was a $35 donation to the Forty Thieves Car Club, a member of the Torrance Police Car Club, Assa., which is working on a car for their club o run on a drag strip. Twenty-tive dollars was also donated o a local family to aid with neavy, unexpected medical exercises. On the agenda in the near future is attendance at a harter dinner to be held for he new Manhattan Beach Ki-given last Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Jim Harner of Danaha St. Held at the Lonifa home of Mrs. Thomas Kincannon, the affair was a lovely and a happy one with the gathering of friends since high school days. The guests included Mrs. David Connell of Riverside, Mrs. Jack Moraine of Torrance, Mrs. Dick Seden of Torrance, Mrs. Do. Dick Seden of Lomita, Mrs. A. M. Gamby, also of Lomita, Mrs. A. M. Gamby, also of Lomita, Mrs. A. M. Gamby, also of Lomita, Mrs. C. A. Harner of Lomita, Mrs. C. A. Harner of Lomita, Mrs. Ray George Key of Palos Verdes, Mrs. C. A. Harner of Torrance. Sending gifts but unable to attend ware Mrs. Driscoll Truitt of Saha Monica, Mrs. Ray Pollack of Brea, and Mrs. Hugh Way of Garden Grove. The table was eye-catching with a stork and baby centerplece, and the cake with each individual serving topped with a pink or blue bootse. Candies and nuts were at each place in a clever container in the shape of small pink and blue parasols. Ice cream sundaes and coffee was served with the cake, after the many lovely gifts were removed from the basinette and opened.
